

So Much More* Booklist

Aunt Jane's Hero by Elizabeth Prentiss

The two main characters in this beautiful story are a callow youth and his Godly aunt. In his early, spiritually bereft days, he did not always appreciate his aunt's counsel or "sermons." However, Aunt Jane's prayers continually followed Horace after he enlisted in the Civil War, and he became a different person, not only physically but spiritually. Horace marries a delightful Christian girl who is a wonderful example of how a wife can use gracious appeal to influence her husband.

Beautiful Girlhood by Mabel Hale

This is a book of encouragement to help teenage girls seek after inner beauty and practice the proper manners and graces of a young lady. The book consists of short essays in different topics that are vital for girls to understand.

Christian Modesty and the Public Undressing of America by Jeff Pollard

Jeff Pollard, from a thoughtful and balanced perspective, challenges us to embrace God's standard and to understand the historical roots of the rise of nudity and immodesty in modern culture. A courageous booklet!

Hidden Pearls by Abbie Benton Bonsteel, Republished by His Image Ministries

Here is the tender story of a young girl and her commitment to purity, showing how her pledge of purity affects not only her life, but also the lives of those around her. This is a beautiful story for mothers to read together with their daughters who are entering young womanhood.

Mother by Kathleen Norris, edited by Jennie Chancey

Mother is the fictional tale of a young lady who leaves home and repudiates family life in the hope of finding personal fulfillment through independence and a career. She decides that home life is a poor choice in the face of life in the big city. But God dramatically changes her heart as she realizes that wealth and position are illusory and that independence can enslave a young lady. She discovers that the greatest woman she has ever known is her mother and now she longs for home and motherhood.

Raising Maidens of Virtue by Stacy McDonald

This is a must-have book if you are a young lady or a mother of a young lady. Stacy McDonald has succinctly and winsomely handled all of the tough issues without a hint of legalism. Topics include: guarding the tongue, idleness, sibling relationships, honoring parents, contentment, modesty, purity, cleanliness, and feminine Biblical beauty.

So Much More by Anna Sofia Botkin and Elizabeth Botkin

The Botkin sisters focus on how young women can rise above their God-hating culture and change it for the better. Today, countless young ladies face difficult problems and challenging questions. This book presents practical, biblical solutions for the young woman who wants to do so much more than just "survive" a savagely feministic, anti-Christian culture.

Stepping Heavenward by Elizabeth Prentiss

This wonderful story of a young woman's spiritual journey was written in the 1800s but is suitable for today's Christians and also for all ages. This book will encourage, inspire, and challenge your walk with Christ in a dimension that few have experienced.

The Return of the Daughters DVD by Anna Sophia and Elizabeth Botkin

This documentary interviews of several young women who have dared to defy today's anti-family culture in pursuit of a Biblical approach to daughterhood, using the years before marriage to pioneer a new culture of strength and dignity. Learn the fulfilling, exciting life of impact and accomplishment that young women can and should have. Discover the power of the family unit and a picture of the Biblical home as the center of dominion work—a vibrant center of education, ministry, evangelism, culture, entrepreneurialism, and hospitality.

Training Dominion-Oriented Daughters DVD by Geoff Botkin

How do you teach a shy daughter to go outside of herself? What kind of toys should you give your girls? What examples of regal conduct should you put before them to emulate? Is it wise to foster romanticism or sentimentalism in your daughters? What sort of academic priorities should you set for your girls? What about hobbies? In this helpful talk, Geoff Botkin shares how he and his wife Victoria sought to answer these questions, offering a personal glimpse into how they have endeavored to wisely raise their daughters. Geoff explains that even amidst perilous times daughters can be encouraged to look and smile at the future.

What is Biblical Femininity? Cultivating Sturdy Virtue in Today's Daughters DVD by Anna Sophia Botkin and Elizabeth Botkin

For several generations, feminists have actively subverted godly womanhood and redefined the priorities of daughters, pushing girls toward independence and indifference for the role that God has designed for them. Thankfully, many Christians are beginning to see the futility of the feminist ideal, yet this question must be clearly answered: What is "biblical femininity"? True femininity, the Botkin sisters maintain, is not based on tradition, stereotypes, or romantic images from the past. It doesn't matter how "girly" a girl's clothes are or how good her manners are — if a lady's heart is not devoted to putting biblical priorities first, she's not practicing femininity as God designed it.

What's a Girl to Do? How to Wisely Invest Your Daughter's Time by Doug Phillips

Notwithstanding good intentions, many well-meaning but double-minded Christian parents continue to build their daughters' future on a feminist model. Frankly, most Christians are unaware that the Bible offers clear guidelines for how wise parents can invest their daughters' time for the glory of God. This tape offers hope and direction for the woman of God who desires to cultivate virtue while fully exercising her gifts.

A Woman Professing Godliness: A Practical Guide to Biblical Femininity by Tracy Gorman

This is a rare find—not widely available. The author, a young lady, first prepared this booklet for a secular college course! This booklet contains a very thoughtful treatment of the Biblical principles of modesty. One of the best features is her drawings—we were amazed that she could illustrate immodesty without defrauding the reader!