

Press On

*For those whose lives are linked to thee,
Whose hearts seek e'er true faith to see,
For all who'd stumble if you should fall,
Stay faithful to the upward call.*

*When fears assail to turn thee back,
When courage you most sorely lack,
Look onward, upward to thy king,
And from that glance thy heart can sing.*

*Be pressing onward for their sake,
And from thy God thy courage take.
For though thy struggles weigh thee down,
Thy perseverance wins thy crown.*

*So be found faithful for those you love;
Keep fixed thy heart on God above;
And ne'er look back tho' the night be long,
But look to Christ and still press on!*
