

Reflections on Life Purpose

- If it doesn't matter the day you die, it doesn't matter today.
- This, our life, will soon be past; only what is done for Christ will last.
- Fulfillment is not to be found by pursuing our agenda but by surrendering our agenda to the Lord.
- To know Christ and to make Him known—our mission.
- The chief end of man: To know God and glorify Him forever.
- Invest in things eternal: God's truth and people's lives.
- Success: Discerning the will of God and fulfilling it.

Principles for Setting Priorities:

- People are more important than things
- The important is more important than the urgent
- Is this truly what matters most? (The most important thing is to keep the most important thing the most important thing)
- Am I choosing the highest and best?

Guidelines for Choosing Activities:

- Will this make a spiritual impact in the lives of others?
- Does this meet a need in the lives of those God has put into my life?
- Will this help me develop skills for significant service in the future?
- Does this glorify God or man?

Have I done first things first according to God's Word?

Remember Teddy Stollard

Remember John Harper

“For me to live is Christ”